S.A. No. 431/2001
(Old No. 896 of 1985)
Hon'ble B.C. Kandpal, J.

Sri Harshvardhan Shah, learned counsel for the respondent, has submitted before the court that the money decree, which has been passed by the court below, has now been satisfied, as the respondent has obtained the payment from the State.

In view of the aforesaid submission raised by the learned counsel for the respondent, this second appeal has rendered infructuous.

Accordingly the second appeal is dismissed as being infructuous.
